Dear Ms. McCarthy:

My Wife and I own a home in Silverton, Colorado that is located on the bank of Cement Creek. It is listed for sale at $309,000 but I am now advised that it cannot be sold at any price and is essentially worthless.

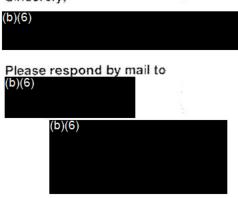

The reason for this is entirely due to EPA's gross negligence associated with its activity relative to the Gold King Mine. Toxic materials were released into Cement Creek that will last for years and years. Nobody will wish to live there.

When BP harmed The Gulf of Mexico, EPA insisted that those who were adversely affected be made whole, and they were. I fully expect EPA to do the same.

Although I would be loath to bring suit, depending upon the timeliness and extent of your response, I may well have no other recourse. It's just not right that I have been deprived of my property solely due to EPA's neglect.

I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
